NARRATIVE:

Sherfield has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include contempt of court, multiple assault charges including assault with great bodily injury likely, assault with a deadly weapon, throwing substances at a vehicle with intent to cause great bodily injury, violation of parole and assault on spouse or cohabitant. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 4 year term for assault. Sherfield was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 3rd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Sherfield qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of assault with great bodily injury likely is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
